- The above documents are far more disparate in nature and difficult to aggregate than Congressional and Regulatory Documents

Quantity

voxgov delivers to users an exponentially-growing collection of more than 20 million documents, comprised of official documents of U.S. Federal Government bodies, as well as social media output of federal entities and individual actors such as legislators, department chiefs, and others in all branches and levels of the Federal Government. The database archives information authored or adopted by the Federal Government and published through official government channels. In addition, voxgov includes multimedia content such as Twitter feeds, YouTube videos and other output by government entities and comprising the total universe of "e-Gov" communications of the Federal Government.

Congressional Documents

Extension of Remarks (Congressional Record), House Record (Congressional Record), Senate Record (Congressional Record), CRS Reports, Committee Reports, Conference Reports, Joint Reports

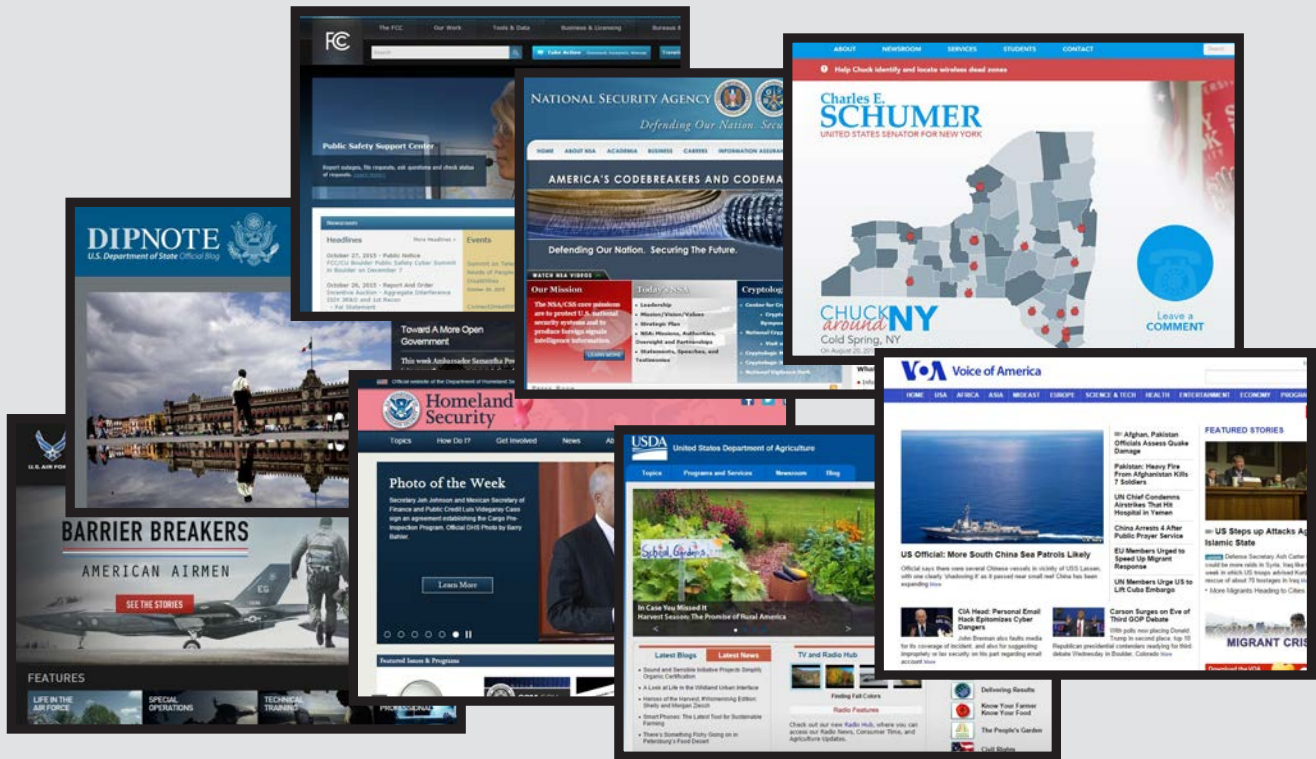

Legislation

Laws, Amendments, Bills, Joint Resolutions, Concurrent Resolutions, Simple Resolutions

Federal Register

Proposed Rules, Simple Rules, Notices, Presidential Executive Orders, Presidential Determinations, Presidential Memos, Presidential Proclamations, Presidential Notices, Public Inspection

Proliferation of Social, Economic, and Political Resources Results in Valuable Information Being Missed

voxxgov's Unique Infrastructure and Service Collects Government Information for Research and Analysis

The Problem:

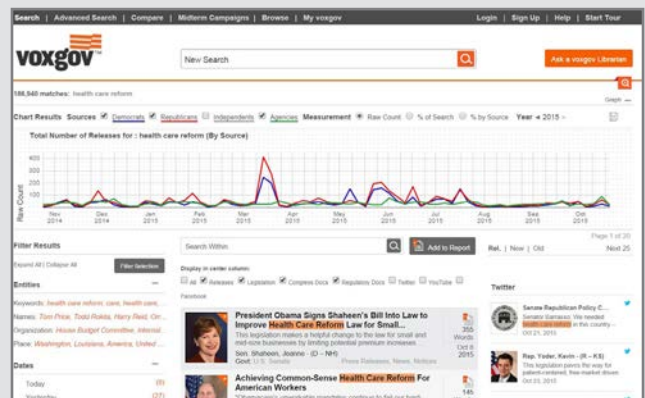

- Widely dispersed and difficult to navigate
- No digital archiving standards applied
- No government-wide transparency
- Valuable info

The Process:

- Visit 14,600 + web destinations 24x7
- Harvest 50 document types daily
- 17,500 new documents added daily
- Detailed meta-data tagging applied

The Solution:

- Aggregates original source documents
- Provides access in a single user interface
- From all branches of government
- Creates a record of government conversation

The Benefits:

- 20.5 million documents, growing daily
- Cached copies ensure access to originals
- Refined research capabilities
- Data download options

Quality

voxgov offers powerful features, such as rich indexing and browsing of government bodies and actors, powerful visualizations and report-building tools. voxgov also retains cached copies of all documents captured, allowing discovery of items that may be deleted from the internet after posting.

Continuous Improvement

voxgov crawls in excess of 14,600 web destinations on algorithmically generated intervals, adding more than 17,500 new documents on average each day, and presents a uniquely comprehensive picture of the work and official communication of the United States Federal Government.

What They're Saying About voxgov...

"voxgov allows you to easily search for any government document and communication from across all three branches of government... voxgov has just replaced Google for this librarian when it comes to research on federal rules, legislation and other government activity and communication." Harvard University Law Librarian

"...This database is a tool to both view and analyze ephemeral information scattered in various government-produced media outlets, while aggregating, indexing and archiving it on one platform. The sophisticated and elegant interface offers powerful filtering and analysis of the results..." Center for Research Libraries

"...voxgov would be a useful service for lobbyists and government-affairs lawyers, general counsel, and any lawyer with a significant need to track government activity on specific topics across a range of sources and in real time... I am not aware of anything that compares to voxgov in its ability to monitor a broad scope of government media in real time and deliver it all in a simple and intuitive interface." LawSites \(Leading Blogger\)

"This is a game-changer. There is nothing like it. Everyone in government needs access to this." Chief of Staff, NY senator
